THURSDAY, OCTOBER 18, 1744.

Genoa, October 3.

THE Myſtery is at laſt diſclos'd, and we are now perfectly inform'd, not only of the Intention with which the Republick makes ſo great an Armament at the preſent Juncture, but alſo the Advantage ſhe expects to reap thereby. In ſhort, the State has concluded a Treaty with the two Crowns; in Virtue of which, ſhe is to furniſh that of France with [illegible] Men, and Spain with 5000; which are to aſſemble between Rivalti and Novi, in order to be at Hand to undertake the Siege of Tortona and Alexandria, as ſoon as Coni is in the Hands of the Allies. Theſe Forces are to ſerve for one Year at the Expence of the Republick; and if the War ſhould laſt longer, they are to enter into Spaniſh Pay. At the Cloſe of the War, the Principality of Oniglia, Mentona, Monaco, and the County of Nice, as far as the Var, are to be yielded to, and perſonally guaranty'd by the two Crowns, and their Allies, to the Republick; who, in Return, are to make a Ceſſion of the Kingdom of Corſica to Don Philip. At preſent, the Forces of this Republick are under the Command of General Spinola; and are marching, by ſmall Bodies, towards Gavi and Novi; a French, or Spaniſh General, being very ſoon expected here, to take upon him the Command in Chief.

Extract of a Letter from an Officer in the Pruſſian, Service, dated from the Camp at Teyn, October 2, 1744.

'On the 29th of laſt Month the King detached a conſiderable Body of Troops, under the Command of Lieutenant-General Naſſau, with Orders to poſſeſs himſelf of the important Poſt of Budweis, in which there was a Gariſon of 2000 Huſſars and Pandours. As ſoon as he approach'd the Place, theſe Irregular Troops made a Sally with prodigious Fury; but after a ſhort Diſpute, were repuls'd with the Loſs of 100 Men kill'd upon the Spot, and 85 wounded. The neceſſary Diſpoſitions being made for Beſieging the Place, and ſome Bombs being thrown into the Town, the Baron de Monray, who commanded therein, deſired to capitulate. The Honours of War were granted to him, and his Gariſon, and he, with his Huſſars and Pandours, immediately march'd out.

'Lieutenant-General Naſſau proceeded directly to Frawenberg, the Gariſon of which ſurrender'd on the ſame Conditions, on the 1ſt of this Month. The taking of Budweis coſt us only 19 Men; and that of Frawenberg only one Huſſar killed, and another wounded. Beſides the vaſt Importance of both theſe Poſts, we found in each of them a conſiderable Quantity of Ammunition, and ſome Pieces of Artillery alſo.

'His Majeſty being thus become Maſter of that Part of Bohemia which is beſt fortified, has thought proper to advance to Teyn. We apprehend, that our next Motion will be towards Piſeck and Pilſen. Prince Henry, Brother to the King, was, for ſome Days, troubled with a Diarrhea; but his Royal Highneſs having repoſ'd himſelf for ſome Time at Tabor, is perfectly recover'd, and has rejoin'd the Army; which, thro the King's great Care and Attention, is exceedingly well furniſhed with Proviſions; and we have very few, if any, ſick amongſt us, notwithſtanding our long March, and the great Fatigues to which we have been expos'd for ſome Time.

Extract of a Letter from Prince Charles's Camp at Tſchemolitz, October 9, 1744.

'We have, within theſe few Days, received Advice, that the Enemy have made themſelves Maſters of Budweis and Frawenberg; the Gariſon of which, conſiſting of Irregular Troops, marched out with the Honours of War. On the 4th we were informed, that the King of Pruſſia had turned off towards Teyn; had paſſed the Moldaw there, and was encamped between Hurket and Sablat, within two or three Marches of our Army. Upon this Intelligence, we decamped the 5th, in order to march towards him, and to the River, with which View we advanced hi- We have here thrown three Bridges over the y, and General Nadaſti has paſſed it with the of Troops under his Command, in order to cut Communication with the Country behind them, as with Prague. The firſt Effect of this Mo- General Nadaſti, was this; that the King of found himſelf obliged to repaſs the Moldaw 8th, in the Afternoon; there remained no other Step for him to take, for if he had infeebled his Army by ſending a Detachment to obſerve that of General Nadaſti, he would have run the Riſque of being forc'd to fight us immediately; for, in that Caſe, we ſhould not have waited for the Saxons. We now wait to ſee what Step he will take next. As to our Army, it is a Thing ſettled, that we are to remain here till the 13th, the Day on which we expect the Saxons to join us; that is to ſay, unleſs the Motions of the Enemy ſhould oblige us to alter our Plan.'

Nuremberg, October 13. The Gariſon of Straubingen, after having blown up the few Fortifications that remained there, have retired, in order to join the Army of General Berenclau, who is in full March with all his Forces for the Iſer. His Deſign is to penetrate into the Upper Auſtria, as far as Lintz; to paſs the Danube there, and to join the King of Pruſſia by the Defiles of Budweis, of which that Prince has made himſelf Maſter, in order to facilitate the Execution of that Project.

Paris, October 14. None of the Foreign Miniſters follow the King to the Siege of Fribourg, except thoſe of Spain and Naples, who are of the Family; and Count Schmettau who attends him, rather in his Military, than in his Miniſterial Capacity. Two Days ago it was poſitively ſaid, that the Prince of Conti had ſent the Dauphin an Expreſs of the taking of Coni, but that Report proves to be falſe. Several private Letters from the Army aſſure us, that our Loſs in the late Engagement, was much greater than has been reported, and that of the Enemy much leſs. They likewiſe ſay, that the King of Sardinia found Means to throw two Battalions into the Place; and that the German Officer who commands in Coni, ſeems determined to defend it as long as one Stone is left upon another. In the mean Time, it is certain, that our Army is dreadfully incommoded by Sickneſs, and if ſome Letters may be depended upon, are likewiſe in want of Proviſion and Ammunition.

Hague, October 23. His Excellency Baron Roſenberg, formerly Ambaſſador from her Hungarian Majeſty at the Court of Berlin, being charged in a late virulent Libel, entitled, The Remarks of a good German Patriot, on the Expoſition of the Motives of the King of Pruſſia, &c. with telling the Baron de S[illegible]on, his Imperial Majeſty's Miniſter at the Pruſſian Court, in the Preſence of the two Ruſſian Miniſters, That the ſmalleſt Satisfaction that could be given to the Queen of Hungary and Bohemia, was the annulling the Imperial Election; the ſaid Count has written the following Billet to each of the Queen's Miniſters, reſident in Foreign Courts, from Moſcow, where his Excellency reſides at preſent.

'You have, without doubt, found, that in the Expoſition of the King of Pruſſia, with Remarks, there is in the Remark O, a Story told of me. All that I am made to ſay there, is falſe and forged. For this Reaſon, I have publickly, in the Preſence of all the Foreign Miniſters here, given the LYE to the Author of thoſe Remarks; which is what the Miniſters of Ruſſia, of their own Motives, did at Berlin, as ſoon as that Piece appeared, on account of their being named therein, as Witneſſes to my ſaying, what in that Piece it is pretended I ſaid.'

HOME PORTS.

Newcaſtle, October 13. Arrived the Cleaveland, Rickey, from Rotterdam; the Caſter, Anderſon, from Gottenburgh; and the Three Brothers, Nicholſon, from Norway; alſo ſeveral laden, and 28 light Coaſters.

Briſtol, October 15. The Trial, Lewis, from London, is arrived at Old Calabar.

Falmouth, October 13. Yeſterday ſailed the Prince Frederick, Hanover, and Swallow Packets, for Lisbon.

Plymouth, October 14. Since my laſt came in the Q. of Hungary, Hilton, and the Britannia, Griffiths, from London for New York; the Two Siſters, Stedman, from Holland for Philadelphia; all under Convoy of the Sutherland Man of War, Capt. Pocock.

Pool, October 15. Sailed the Portſmouth, Biſſet, and the Whiſtler, Shorter, to wait a Convoy for London. Came in the Weſton's Adventure, Weſton, from Newcaſtle; the Hopewell, Rowe, from Hamburgh; the Suſanna, Edmonds, from London; and the John and Mary, Miller, from Guernſey.

Cowes, October 15. Wind W. The 13th came down from Spithead, and remains, his Majeſty's Ship the Shoreham, Capt. Osborn, bound for Plymouth; and the Nancy, Tracy, from London for Madeira; and alſo ſeveral Coaſters bound to the Weſtern Ports. On the 14th came in the John, Croſthwaite, from London for Carolina; the Durham, Harriſon, from Newcaſtle for Guernſey; which laſt ſailed this Morning to join the Convoy under the Torrington Man of War, which now lay in Lymington Creek and Yarmouth Road.

Southampton, October 15. Wind N. W. This Morning arrived the Stephen and Jane, Hebb, the Olive's Increaſe, Buck, and the Heming, Coverdale, all from Newcaſtle.

Deal, October 16. Wind N. Remain his Majeſty's Ships the Princeſs Louiſa, Mary Gally, and Merlin Sloop.

Graveſend, October 16. Paſſed by the Matthew, Maxwell from St. Kitts.

LONDON.

By Letters from Guernſey, dated the 14th Inſtant, we have Advice, that Part of a Wreck, ſeveral long Oars, &c. all marked Victory, with White Lead, are thrown aſhore at Alderney; as alſo a Portmanteau of Cloaths belonging to Capt. Cotterel, of Col. Wolf's Regiment of Marines. By which, and many other Circumſtances, it appears, that his Majeſty's Ship the Victory, of 110 Braſs Guns, commanded by Sir John Balchen and Captain Faulkener, was loſt in the Night, between the 4th and 5th Inſtant, near Alderney. And as there was no Account of the Crew at Guernſey the 14th Inſtant, 'tis feared they all periſhed.

Private Letters from Florence ſay, that Theodore Baron de Neuhoff, who had, for ſome Time, reſided at Sienna, was ſuddenly gone from thence, in order, as it was ſuppoſed, to put himſelf at the Head of his Party in the Iſland of Corſica.

The Sieur Janus who commanded in Chief the Pruſſian Huſſars, and who was thought one of the ableſt Partizans in Europe, was kill'd on the 1ſt Inſtant, N. S. by a Party of Auſtrians, who found about him 10,000 Ducats in ready Money, and ſome Papers of very great Importance.

It was the Cabinet Courier Popperman who brought the Advices, mentioned in our former, from Moſcow to Vienna, in a ſurprizing ſhort Space of Time; for which the Queen was pleaſed to reward him with a Ring of great Value, and a large Purſe of Ducats.

They write from Dreſden, that a Confederacy is on the Carpet there for reſtoring the Balance of Power, and ſecuring the Tranquility of Europe; in which the Czarina, his Britannick Majeſty, the Queen of Hungary, the King and Republick of Poland, with the States General of the United Provinces, are the contracting Parties; and to which, the chief Princes and States in Germany, Eccleſiaſtical and Secular, will be invited to accede.

According to private Letters from Paris, it is very much doubted, whether the Baniſhment of certain Ladies will continue for any long Time or not; eſpecially, as it is certain, that Madame the Ducheſs of Chateauroux has actually taken the Palace in which the late Cardinal de Geſvres liv'd, in the Street of St. Honore.

The John and Chriſtian, Beatie, and the Jane and Janet, Roſsbrook, both from Gottenburgh for Scotland, are taken, and carried into Dunkirk.

The Leghorn Galley, Templer, from New England for Lisbon, is taken, and carried into Cadiz.

The Prince of Orange, Campbell, from Africa to Virginia, is carried into Guardalupe.

The Right Hon. the Earl of Scarborough, who has been very Ill, is in a fair Way of Recovery.

Laſt Tueſday Evening the Duke, Capt. Hinman; and Yeſterday the Warwick, Captain Miſenor, both from India, that came North about, came to their Moorings; the former at Eriff, and the latter at Long Reach.

Yeſterday ſeven Soldiers, belonging to the Firſt Regiment of Foot Guards, were committed to the Gatehouſe, Weſtminſter, by Sir Thomas De Veil, on the Oath of one Brown, for being concerned with him in divers Robberies.

One of them is charg'd with the Murder of Mr. Hutchens, (who kept the Five Bells at Cheiſea) at Bloody Bridge, ſome time ſince.

The ſame Day Staffordſhire Nan, of Thieving Lane, Weſtminſter, was committed to Newgate, for being concern'd in the ſaid Murder.

Laſt Tueſday Night Sir William Morden Harbord, one of the new Knights of the Bath, arriv'd in Town, from his Seat in Norfolk.

Yeſterday the Seſſions began at the Old Bailey, when Twenty-four Perſons were tried, Three of whom were Capitally Convicted; viz.

Richard Lee, otherwiſe Country Dick, for robbing William Price at a Houſe of ill Fame in St. Giles's.

Peter Moulcer, for Raviſhing Anne Biſhop, an Infant of Eight Years of Age.

Peter Velgens, for breaking the Dwelling-houſe of Mr. Chriſtopher Pinchbeck, and ſtealing ſeveral Goods of Value.

Seven were caſt for Tranſportation. And Fourteen Acquitted.

The Incomparable POWDER for Curing the TEETH,

Has withſtood, by its moſt excellent and known Virtues, all Attempts of many repeated Counterfeits; ſome inſcribing it by the Name of Powder, others under ſeveral other Names: Therefore pray take Notice, that the only true and genuine and original Powder, is ſold no where elſe, but as mentioned below: It is ſent for in large Quantities from the Nations beyond the Seas, where good Allowance is given, as is as effectual in the Eaſt and Weſt Indies as at Home.

IT has given ſurprizing Satisfaction to the moſt of the Nobility and Gentry in England, for ſeveral Years laſt paſt, that it hath been publiſhed, and vaſt Quantities of it ſtill continue to be ſold.

It is ſold only at Mrs. Wharton's (was King's) Toy-ſhop, the Blue-coat-Boy, near the Royal-Exchange in Cornhill; at Mrs. Markham's Great Toy-ſhop, the Seven Stars (where ſhe is removed) directly over-againſt St. Dunſtan's Church in Fleet-ſtreet, and no where elſe in England at 1 s. each Box.

N. B. Pray mind you ſend to the right Place; for where Mrs. Markham is removed from, has alſo got the Seven Stars for its Sign.

At once uſing it makes the Teeth as white as Ivory, if ever ſo black or yellow before, and effectually preſerves them from rotting or decaying, continuing them ſound to extream Old Age. It wonderfully cures the Scurvy in the Gums, Defluxion, Rheum or Defluction, kills the Worms at the Roots of the Teeth, and thereby hinders the Tooth-ach. It alſo faſtens looſe Teeth, being a neat cleanly Medicine, of a pleaſant and grateful Scent, and in Virtue far exceeds any that ever yet found out for thoſe Purpoſes.

All the Nobility, Gentry, &c. who ſend to Mrs. Markham for the Powder for Teeth, are deſired to give ſtrict Orders not to miſtake the Shop, (MARKHAM at length is now at the Seven Stars) becauſe moſt of the Toymen in her Neighbourhood, ſeeing Multitudes go to her Shop for it, have ſet up Counterfeits and ſell their Stuff in Imitation of the true and approved Powder, in Prejudice to the Publick, &c.

The LIP-SALVE.

Which is ſo much eſteemed, and of ſo many Years Experience, and whoſe Virtues vaſtly exceed any of the Counterfeits, ſince its firſt Publication, is ſold at the ſame Places at 1 s. each Box.

For in two or three Hours time it heals them, tho' ever ſo rough or chopt; prevents the Skin from peeling, and makes them delicately ſoft and ſmooth, giving them a beautiful Colour; the Fragrancy of its Odour alſo renders the Breath fine and ſweet, and it may be eaten for its Sa[voury]
